2027 NBDCC Convention Code of Conduct

I. Commitment to a welcoming and respectful environment

The National Barbie Doll Collectors Club Convention Steering Committee, Executive Board and Chairs are committed to creating a safe, inclusive, and harassment-free environment for all convention participants. The participation of all attendees and participants is valued. All involved individuals, including attendees, speakers, exhibitors, sponsors, volunteers, media, and staff, are expected to uphold these principles.

II. Expected conduct

All attendees and or participants are expected to:

- Treat all individuals with respect, dignity, and consideration. Value the diversity of views and opinions, even those that differ.
- Communicate openly and thoughtfully. Encourage others to participate collaboratively.
- Critique ideas and viewpoints, not individuals, in a non-confrontational manner.
- Refrain from any demeaning, discriminatory, or harassing behavior and speech, whether verbal or physical.
- Respect the rules, policies, and property of the venue, hotels, and the Convention's sponsoring organization.
- Comply with all applicable local, state, and federal laws and regulations.
- Be mindful of surroundings and fellow participants. Report any dangerous situations or individuals in distress to staff and Convention Chairs.
- Respect the confidentiality of individuals involved in conduct concerns.

III. Prohibited conduct (including harassment)

The NBDCC as a zero-tolerance policy for harassment in any form. This includes, but is not limited to:

- Intimidation, stalking, threats, or discrimination.
- Harassment of any kind, including verbal, physical, sexual, or nonverbal, aimed at any attendee, staff, volunteer, speaker, exhibitor, or venue personnel.

- Offensive comments related to gender, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, race, religion, national origin, or other protected characteristics.
- Unwelcome sexual attention or inappropriate physical contact.
- Disruptive or disrespectful behavior during presentations or discussions.
- Advocating for, or encouraging, any of the above behaviors.

IV. Reporting unacceptable behavior

- If you are the subject of, or witness to, behavior that violates this policy, Convention Chairs must be notified immediately.
- Concerns may also be reported to the current Steering Committee Executive Board Chair for 2027, Cynthia M. Wilson at Cynbad2_99@yahoo.com
- Reports may be made anonymously if desired. However, providing details like names, dates, times, and specific descriptions of the incident will assist in the investigation.

V. Consequences of prohibited conduct

- Violations of this NBDCC Code of Conduct are taken seriously.
- Participants asked to cease inappropriate conduct are expected to comply immediately.
- The Executive Board will determine the nature of the conduct and the appropriate corrective action, in its sole discretion.
- Consequences may include, but are not limited to, verbal warnings, removal from the event without refund, limitations or denial of access to future events, or reporting to appropriate authorities.

Attendees and or participants are expected to support these principles and contribute to a positive and rewarding experience for all.
